SUBJECT: 03144015 - Cook County - Elk Grove Village/Film Recovery

On April 13, 1983, I met Howard Chinn of the Illinois Attorney General's Office in order to continue the investigation of Film Recovery System's storage of processed film chips in semi-trailers in a number of locations.

We were to meet with Mr. J. Fiorito of J. Fiorito Leasing, Franklin Park, who was to show us the location of the majority of trailers which he has stored for Film Recovery. Mr. Fiorito, on April 7, 1983, stated that he would not allow us to know the location without him escorting us to their location. He was unavailable on this date. Subsequently, Mr. Chinn had arranged to meet on April 13, 1983, with Mr. Fiorito in order to go to the site. We also met with Trooper T.E. Koch of the Illinois State Police HazMat Section, who would escort us to the various sites.

After waiting from approximately 9:30a.m. - 11:30 a.m. we proceeded to the Fiorito office in Franklin Park. Mr. Fiorito had not yet arrived. His son, Richard Fiorito, told us he did not know where his father was. We waited, in the event that Mr. Fiorito would call in.

After approximately 15 minutes Mr. Fiorito did call, and he spoke with Howard Chinn, the result of the conversation was that he would not divulge the location of the trailers. Howard then telephoned the A.G.'s office and requested that proceedings for obtaining a search warrant be initiated. Upon completion of the call, Richard Fiorito handed us a sheet of paper and told us that the address on it was the former address of their company. He would make no further statement.

We then proceeded to 3933 Evenhouse, Rosemont and observed a number of trailers on the parcel of land on the north side of the street. A partially demolished building on the south side of the street appeared to be the former office. Stickers on the building had the following notations;

- 1) E. Trailer Maintenance, Ltd.
823-6900 Rosemont, Ill.
- 2) St. Cloud Truck Sales, Inc.
(612) 251-0931 Mpls 427-8390

We did not enter the property at this time.

Inquiries at nearby companies revealed that the property on which the material was stored is leased from Red Devil Co., 5995 N. River, 696-2770, Rosemont. Conversations with Matt Kassnel at Red Devil confirmed this. Mr. Kassnel stated that Film Recovery was not leasing the land but Fiorito Leasing, (who was also behind in payment). We requested that Mr. Kassnel notify us if removal of the trailers was attempted.

No site restriction was noted at this storage area.

Howard then, in conversations with the A.G.'s office, received the opinion that we could enter the site and sample the trailers. We proceeded to do so, checking in with Mr. Kassnel prior to entering the site.

Two samples were subsequently obtained from two separate trailers.

The trailers which showed evidence of containing chips showed signs of corrosion, consistent with the previously viewed sites. Not all trailers were opened as many doors were jammed. Those trailers which apparently contained film chips are as follows:
